

change ratifications with the United States. The changes that are now being discussed in the compromise conversations are designed to make it possible for foreign powers to accept America's signature without debate. The President has heretofore said that when the ratifications are adopted by the Senate, he must know whether the Senate has ratified or not to decide that question himself, but to put it squarely before the European powers.

One hears in the Senate corridors much talk about the impossibility of compromise until Mr. Wilson says what he will accept or reject. Those who don't want to do business with the Democrats of the compromising sort insist on written credentials from the President himself. This is well high impossible. But the Democratic Senators know that if the ratifications do not nullify the provisions of the treaty of course the President will accept them. They are going ahead on that assumption, and in seeking to fix the responsibility, not for what has happened in the treaty debate in the past, but in the present, it will be interesting to watch how far the Republican leaders go in insulating that Mr. Wilson underwrite everything the Democratic Senators offer in the way of a compromise.

GOOD BET THAT WILSON WILL ACCEPT SENATE'S ACTION.

One thing is clear: Mr. Wilson will not be a party to the compromise negotiations, but once a compromise is effected and the treaty is adopted by the Senate with reservations satisfactory to two-thirds of the membership of the Senate, it is an open question whether Mr. Wilson will pass the document on to the European powers.

For it is they who can now say whether the United States has satisfied the conditions upon which membership in the League of Nations is based. If they want America to join and can afford to give the United States special interpretations of treaty clauses, and in some cases an implied exemption from obligation, then it is their business to say. So far as President Wilson is concerned, the ratification of the peace treaty by the European powers and the setting up of the Council of the League of Nations has in a sense diminished his own discretionary powers over the future action of the Senate and made the task one entirely for the Senate of the United States.

Democrats and Republicans at last are becoming conscious of their new responsibility and the progress toward compromise not only in producing hopefulness in Capitol Hill, but significantly enough it provokes no displeasure at the White House.

CHICAGO CRIME ABRUPTLY STOPPED

Not a Hold-up in Twelve Hours—600 Arrests in Police Round-Up of Suspects.

CHICAGO, Jan. 12.—More than 600 alleged criminals, police characters and vandals to-day were in jail, and crime in Chicago temporarily had been stopped by the Police Department's two day drive. Approximately twenty-five per cent of those arrested were identified as "men with records," the police said.

Not a hold-up was reported from noon Sunday until midnight, and only five automobiles were stolen. The average had been above twenty-five street robberies and from ten to forty-five motor cars stolen.

The police to-day continued the work of gathering in suspects, and it was announced the wholesale arrests would continue indefinitely.

We are going to show the crooks they cannot live in Chicago," said John M. Acock, First Deputy Superintendent of Police.

Twenty suspects were killed while resisting arrest and two others wounded. Saloons, questionable hotels, gambling houses, cabarets and poolrooms were raided.

NO JOY IN PEACE WITH B. S. OUT IS FELT IN BRITAIN

Disappointment at Failure of America to Participate Generally Expressed in Papers.

LONDON, Jan. 12.—Ratification of the treaty of Versailles fails to elicit any expressions of joy from the London press. Editorials in this morning's newspapers express, at best, qualified satisfaction, while some journals strike a distinctly doleful note.

"It is no time of triumph or soaring hopes," says the Telegraph. "The omission of America's signature to the ratifying document stands for the better disappointment of the hope that glowed with promise for humanity a year ago. It is true the League of Nations exists by the terms of the treaty, but the world knows that unless and until the United States adheres to the League and participates in its actions not a title of the usefulness and moral authority it should possess will belong to it."

Doubts of the reality of peace behind the formal act of ratification are expressed by the Daily News. It regrets that the United States has no part in the League.

"Are we near peace?" asks the Graphic, which says nobody can answer this question with a hopeful affirmative. "Those who want peace must work for it," the paper concludes.

The Chronicle, deploring the cause of the League of Nations, says it is "much weakened by the action of the American Senate." The newspaper expresses the hope, nevertheless, that Allied Governments will immediately go ahead with the League, but questions whether Great Britain, France and Italy, without the support of America, assume a position to act as dictators to the rest of Europe, adding: "America's concurrence would have made a great moral difference." "With the peace with Germany," says the Manchester Guardian, "the League of Nations will be born. It is the duty of the President of the United States to see that the first meeting of the Council of the League a fortnight hence, and there is no reason to doubt Mr. Wilson will duly perform that task. It is for each of us to bring strength and credit to this new and mighty instrument of international accord. It is the hope of the world."

LAST OF TROOPS HOME FROM BREST

George Washington Brings 826 Passengers on Last Trip in Transport Service.

The last of the fighting troops which had been quartered in Brest under sailing orders for home arrived to-day on the transport George Washington, the peace ship of the President. The complement of the ship comprised 826 passengers, including civilians, seventy-seven soldiers, wives of soldiers, thirteen clerks of the War Department, seven of the Peace Commission and three of the Liquidation Commission. Brig. Gen. C. B. Krauthoff, who was sales agent for the Liquidation Commission, returned. He sold 12,000,000 of surplus supplies and travelled all over Europe. Also among the passengers were five nurses, the last of them from Brest.

Considerable rough weather was experienced on the voyage and on Jan. 4 Fred Alonzo, a sailor, was swept overboard and drowned.

The George Washington will be retired from the service and turned over to one of the steamship lines. She was formerly a German liner.

SOME GERMANS PLAN TO SINK MORE SHIPS

Scheme Said to Be Under Consideration of Officers of Navy.

COPENHAGEN, Jan. 12.—A plan to sink German warships not yet turned over to the Allies is being considered by officers of the German Navy, according to information received by the majority Socialist Party leaders.

PASTOR DENIES WOMAN'S CHARGE

Mrs. Bennett, in Tombs, Reported to Have Said He Exerted a "Psychological Influence."

Mrs. Mary Jennings Bennett, who gave herself up while detectives were searching for her after her husband had forfeited because of failure to appear for trial on his indictment charging she obtained $7,000 on false pretenses, declined to discuss her plight in the Tombs to-day. The complainant, Mrs. Josephine Cordora of No. 11 North Eighth street, Mount Vernon, and Mrs. Cordora's aunt, Mrs. Carmela de Marchena, accused her of obtaining money to establish a chain of furnished rooming houses in this city.

The Rev. Ellis Williams of No. 32 West 52nd street, who was quoted to-day as saying that Mrs. Bennett consulted him frequently regarding her plans, denied the statement attributed to Mrs. Bennett that he had exerted a "psychological influence" over her.

The Rev. Walter H. Sampson, assistant pastor of the First Washington Church, of which Mrs. Bennett was a member, said he did not know Mrs. Bennett, but had heard that she borrowed from the Rev. Dr. Daniel H. Martin of the Bronx, who died last week, and had returned it.

The Rev. Mr. Williams, in denying the alleged statement of Mrs. Bennett that she and other women had been inspired by him to go into unsuccessful enterprises, said he lent her $200 only because he believed from her statements that her father-in-law owned a large share of the Murray Hill Hotel.

CHARGE CONSPIRACY TO U. S. OFFICIAL

Commissioner Reifschneider Will Be Arraigned in Brooklyn Court To-morrow.

A warrant charging conspiracy was issued to-day against Police Reifschneider Jr., United States Commissioner, by Magistrate Folwell in the Adams Street Court, Brooklyn.

The warrant was issued on an affidavit by Isaac E. Jersey, a builder and contractor of No. 57 St. Johns Place, who alleges that Reifschneider was attorney for Annie E. Mills, who claimed that Jersey was the father of her two children. Mrs. Mills is a nee Jersey and sued Jersey for $50,000, but lost her case and is now in prison. Jersey alleges that Reifschneider conspired with the woman falsely to institute the suit.

After the issuance of the warrant, Commissioner Reifschneider conferred with Magistrate Folwell, who requested him to appear to-morrow for a hearing.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12 (Associated Press).—The 8,000 American troops in Siberia will begin their homeward movement soon after the middle of February, leaving to Japan the protection of the Siberian railroad and the loyal Russians in eastern Siberia.

The American Railway Commission, which has been directing the operation of the Siberian railroad, will come out of that time, it was learned to-day, and as the Czech-Slovak troops will have been repatriated early next month, the reason for the presence of the American military forces will have been removed.

Preliminary analysis of the water supply showed it unfit to drink, but W. A. Walters, State Chemist, was not certain the water caused the trouble. Further analysis will be made to-day.

The victims first became affected with dizziness, followed by indigestion and symptoms resembling somewhat those of cholera. Men and young people have been found especially susceptible.

PRESIDENT GETTING STEADILY BETTER

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—President Wilson is improving steadily, but it will be some weeks before he can stand the wear and tear of the routine business of the Executive office. He walked about the White House grounds yesterday, but he will continue to increase his exercise daily until he is strong enough to take automobile rides and other outings.

He eats what he likes, sleeps well and reads what pleases him, but he avoids every unnecessary strain—mental or physical. That is part of the rest cure.

Democratic Jubilee Here To-night.

Williams Democratic Organization of the Ninth Assembly District comes to-night—the celebration and ball to be given at the Palm Garden, in 52nd Street, near Lexington Avenue, and the entertainment will include the Keith Circuit. #### MISS DE KAY, MISSING HEIRESS, IS SOUGHT HERE

JEANNE A. DE KAY INTERNATIONAL

SUES FOR $500,000 FOR FALSE ARREST

A. P. McCauley, Mining Broker Mistaken for "Christmas" Keogh, Here to Press Action.

Charging that he was mistakenly identified and held on a charge of forged duplicate bonds furnished by him as to his standing and reputation, A. P. McCauley, wealthy mining broker, Jumeau Building, Toronto, Canada, appeared to-day before Supreme Court Justice Thorpe to press his suit for $500,000 for alleged false arrest, against Theodore B. Starr, jeweler, 48th Street and Fifth Avenue, Lambert Bros. Jewellers, 53th Street and Third Avenue, and Brooks Bros., tailors, 4th Street and Madison Avenue.

McCauley was arrested in St. Louis on Jan. 3, 1917. The subsequent arrest of Starr, who was charged with forging duplicate bonds, did not result in dropping the charges against McCauley and the plaintiff says he spent $50,000 during the past two years trying to clear himself.

Terence McManus of the firm of O'Connell, McManus & Ernst, counsel for McCauley, will contend that McCauley was arrested by mistake for "Christmas" Keogh, who was charged with forging duplicate bonds, and a report made by the Assembly probably recommending their expulsion.

There is a strong possibility that the five may refuse to answer the charges before the Judiciary Committee, contending that it is prejudicial. If they assumed this attitude, it was said to-day that all the evidence against the accused would be put in and a report made by the Assembly, probably recommending their expulsion.

GRAND JURY DELAYS 'CONSPIRACY' REPORT

Swann Conducts Examination of Union Men on Mayor's Interborough Charges.

The report of the extraordinary Grand Jury to Supreme Court Justice Weeks on the charge of Mayor Hylan that there was a conspiracy between officials of the Interborough Rapid Transit Company and the Employees' Association of the Interborough lines was postponed to-day after a conference between Foreman Raymond F. Almond and Justice Weeks.

The Grand Jury to-day heard Louis P. Fridiger, counsel to the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees, and P. J. Shea, assistant president, on the history of the Interborough strike of last summer.

District Attorney Swann at the request of the Grand Jury conducted the examination. Rumors that the Grand Jury was considering asking leave to dissolve were set at rest when the members said they were continuing their personal affairs so that they might continue their official duties for an indefinite time.

FIVE DEAD; 500 ILL IN STRANGE MALADY

One-Quarter of Population in Oklahoma Town Suddenly Stricken—Physicians Puzzled.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Jan. 12.—Physicians and the State Chemist's office were puzzled to-day over a mysterious malady that suddenly became epidemic at Skiatook, a town of 2,000 persons. Thirty-four persons and two men died, more than 500 were ill.

Preliminary analysis of the water supply showed it unfit to drink, but W. A. Walters, State Chemist, was not certain the water caused the trouble. Further analysis will be made to-day.

The victims first became affected with dizziness, followed by indigestion and symptoms resembling somewhat those of cholera. Men and young people have been found especially susceptible.

THAW ALIENIST IS ILL.

Dr. Britton D. Evans Advanced "Brainstorm" Theory at Trial.

MORRIS PLAINS, N. J., Jan. 12.—Dr. Britton D. Evans, Superintendent of the State Hospital, and one of the best known alienists in the country, is seriously ill. Dr. Evans came into federal prominence as one of the experts at the trial of Harry K. Thaw, and advanced the theory that Thaw was suffering from a "brainstorm" at the time he killed Stanford White.

Dr. Evans is sixty-one years old and is suffering from a complication of diseases.

Wholesaler Grocer's License Revoked.

G. E. Lamb of the Department of Justice to-day revoked the food administration license of Harry Glatter, a wholesale grocer at No. 304 East 14th Street, Charles and Julius Roth, grocers at First Avenue and 13th Street, who were convicted recently of profiting in sugar, and Glatter had charged them more than the law permits.

The action was taken at the discretion of Attorney General Palmer.

HUGHES AND SEABURY MAY ACT AS THE SOCIALISTS' COUNSEL

Mills and other distinguished barristers.

When the Assembly meets to-night the outcome of the five will be paramount, though the Republican leaders plan to make no move before the Judiciary Committee on Wednesday. Several politicians, both Republican and Democratic, however, want to "put themselves right" on the matter and may not wait for the trial.

ACTION BASED ON "EVIDENCE," ADLER INSISTS.

Simon L. Adler, Republican leader of the Assembly, said to-day:

"The Judiciary Committee of the Assembly will be announced to-night by the Speaker. I assume that Louis M. Martin of Oneida will continue as Chairman. This committee will give every facility to the accused members for disproving the charges. If they are disproved, the members will be retained on the roll. If they are not, the action of the Assembly will be vindicated."

The five suspended Assemblymen swore to an affidavit yesterday in which they denied the charge of State Senator Lusk that they advocated overthrow of the Government by force. In the affidavit they stated that three hours before they were to take their seats in the Assembly they had taken the oath of office required by law, pledging support to State and Federal Constitutions. To this they added:

"We believed then and we believe to-day that no changes in the Government could be made by force, and we should be made except through the methods provided by the Constitutions of the said Governments."

MAY ASK ASSEMBLY TO SEAT SOCIALISTS PENDING TRIAL

ALBANY, Jan. 12.—Efforts to reseat the five Socialist Assemblymen, pending the result of their trial before the Judiciary Committee, may be made when the Legislature reconvenes tonight, though the Socialists would have no objection to their being seated.

Some Assemblymen who think last week's unsavory process was too hasty are suggesting that the Judiciary Committee elaborate the charges and that the Assembly as a whole sit as judges.

There is a strong possibility that the five may refuse to answer the charges before the Judiciary Committee, contending that it is prejudicial. If they assumed this attitude, it was said to-day that all the evidence against the accused would be put in and a report made by the Assembly, probably recommending their expulsion.

It is regarded as likely that the Senate will take a hand in the proceedings. The Democratic members of the Upper House are inclined to criticize their associates in the Assembly for having been so hastily "killed" to Speaker Sweet's knife in the unsavory process.

The Democrats would have scored politically had they opposed the summary suspension of the Socialists.

If the Democratic Assembly leaders decide to sponsor a resolution recommending the reseat of the Socialists, admitting them to membership until a trial has demonstrated their unfitness or inelegibility for office, many New York Republicans may join forces with them.

The Assembly Judiciary Committee hearing will not last more than two weeks, and the Senate will sit on Jan. 13. Mr. Adler, Majority Leader of the Assembly, who introduced the resolution to have the Socialists seated, said he did not know the exact nature of evidence that would be presented, but he believed it would be sufficient to establish definitely the conduct, control and operation of the Socialists.

Speaker Sweet said that the Judiciary Committee would be appointed to-day and that it would organize immediately.

PLAN TO MAKE WORLD DRY.

Reform Societies Advocate Powerful Prohibition Propaganda.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—In double celebration of the approaching birth of America's first saloonless year and the quarter century anniversary of the International Reform Bureau, the annual convention of national reform societies, which was inaugurated yesterday by special "receptions" to the body of "John Barleycorn" to-day formally convened.

Advocacy of world prohibition by a powerful campaign of propaganda, it is expected, will be pressed by reformers before the National Prohibition Convention, which will convene in New York to-day for revision of existing divorce laws, censorship of motion pictures, and suppression of the interstate transmission of horse racing odds, also was announced.

The victims first became affected with dizziness, followed by indigestion and symptoms resembling somewhat those of cholera. Men and young people have been found especially susceptible.

THAW ALIENIST IS ILL.

DELAY IS GRANTED MARTENS BY SENATE

Soviet "Envoy" Gets Time to Obtain Counsel—Burford Nearing Goal.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Although it was not planned to hear any witnesses, the Senate Foreign Relations Sub-committee expected to get its inquiry into Bolshevik propaganda in this country well under way to-day.

Chairman Moses said the meeting to-day was called to discuss a method of procedure and that Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, who claims to be Ambassador to the United States from the Russian Soviet Government and whose testimony is expected to be a feature of the investigation, will not be called as a witness before to-morrow or perhaps even later. Other members of the "embassy staff" also are expected to be called.

Martens first was summoned to appear to-day, but his request for delay in order that he might secure counsel was granted. It was said here that former Senator Thomas Hardwick of Georgia, and M. E. Pillsbury, former Attorney General of Massachusetts, had been asked by the Russians to represent them.

In the meantime, word has reached officials here that the Soviet Ark Burford, carrying Emma Goldman and her fellow Reds will reach Russia this week and be handed over to that country.

ONLY 14 REDS NOW ON SILENCE STRIKE

Thirty-Five More Radicals Collected in Detroit Arrive at Ellis Island.

Gregorivitch Weinstein, leader of the radicals on Ellis Island awaiting deportation hearings, held fourteen of his men and women comrades faithful to the "silence strike" to-day. The number had dwindled from nearly 500 of the 507 prisoners who first passed through the gates of the island.

They would answer no questions of the special board unless they were advised by counsel.

Weinstein and Eugene Newland are to have hearings before Judge Knox in the United States District Court to-morrow morning on habeas corpus writs asked last week.

Charles Reed, sixty of the 507 have been examined on preliminary proceedings and the matter of admitting them to bail has been referred to the Department of Labor at Washington.

Thirty-five radicals who were collected in Detroit after arrests in various cities of the Middle West, were delivered at Ellis Island to-day.

SEDITION BILL IS DRASTIC.

Measure More Severe Than One Passed by Senate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—A Sedition Bill drafted by the Judiciary Committee along the lines suggested by Attorney General Palmer, and more drastic than that passed by the Senate Saturday, was reported to-day to the House.

It is intended to reach citizens as well as aliens, who are guilty of treasonable activities and would impose the death penalty for seditionary agitation resulting in loss of life. Disfranchisement of persons refusing to testify for fear of incriminating themselves.

The Assembly Judiciary Committee hearing will not last more than two weeks, and the Senate will sit on Jan. 13. Mr. Adler, Majority Leader of the Assembly, who introduced the resolution to have the Socialists seated, said he did not know the exact nature of evidence that would be presented, but he believed it would be sufficient to establish definitely the conduct, control and operation of the Socialists.

Speaker Sweet said that the Judiciary Committee would be appointed to-day and that it would organize immediately.
